MINNESOTA'S GRAND OLD MAN DIED ON A TRAIN IN THE EAST

BODY TO BE SENT TO ST. PAUL WHERE IT WILL LIE IN STATE

ANSWERED LINCOLN'S CALL FOR VOLUNTEERS WHEN 17
YEARS OLD

Senator Knute Nelson died Saturday night on the way home to Minnesota from Washington on a Pennsylvania train shortly after it departed from Baltimore.

Heart failure was the cause of his death.

The body was taken to Harrisburg, Pa., and will be sent to St. Paul, there to lie in state in the Minnesota capitol.

Senator Nelson was 80 years old. He was born Feb. 2, 1843, in Norway.

He had lived in the United States since 1849. He had served his country in some capacity almost continuously from boyhood, when, at 17, he answered Lincoln's call for volunteers to defend the union.

This is his record of service: Enlisted as a private in Union army in 1861, with Fourth Wisconsin infantry.

Wounded and taken prisoner at Port Hudson, La., June 14, 1863. Mustered out as a corporal, 1865.

Admitted to the bar in Dane county, Wis., in 1867.

Served in Wisconsin legislature, 1868 to 1869.

Moved to a homestead at Alexandria, Minn., in 1871.

County attorney of Douglas county, 1872-74.

State senator, 1875-78.

Presidential elector, 1880.

Regent of University of Minnesota, 1882 to 1893.

Member of congress from fifth Minnesota district, 1883 to 1889.

Elected governor in 1892, re-elected in 1894.

Elected United States senator by legislature in January, 1895.

Re-elected by the legislatures of 1901, 1907, 1913, and by the people in 1918.

With Mr. Nelson when he died were his niece, Mrs. Edith Truscott, of Jennings Lodge, Ore.; George W. Wells, Jr., insurance commissioner of Minnesota, and Walker W. Bedford, deputy insurance commissioner of Minneapolis.

Mr. Nelson died in a Pullman berth at 8:15 p. m. when the train was about 11 miles out of Baltimore, passing Timonium, Md.

Dr. E. M. Ewers, of New York, who happened to be on the train, attended him at death.

"I have lost the dearest friend I ever had outside of father and mother," said Governor J. A. O. Preus when interviewed by long distance telephone in New York city last Saturday night.

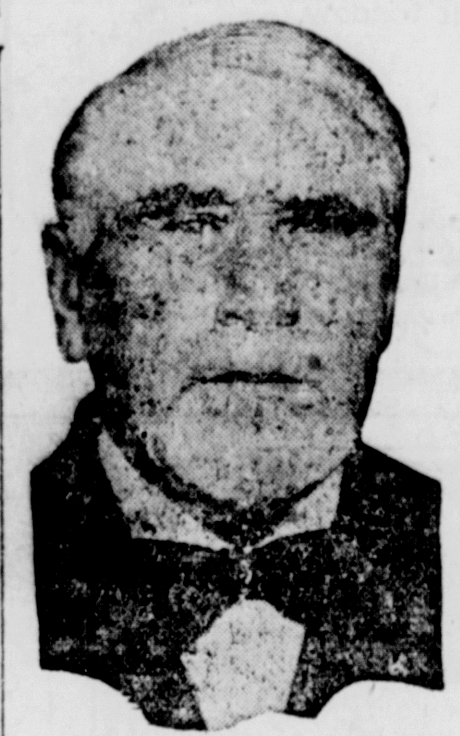

Governor Preus began his political career as a clerk to Senator Nelson immediately after leaving college and looked to him as a guide, philosopher and friend in all his public life.

Shocked by the sudden news, Governor Preus could hardly express his feelings at first. He had expected to meet Senator Nelson Monday in Chicago and return home with him from there.

Greatest From Scandinavia
"Knute Nelson contributed more," said Governor Preus, "to make the Scandinavian people a part of the American people than any other human being. I regard him as the greatest man who ever left the Scandinavian countries."

"Rising from the lowest to the highest position within the gift of the American people for a foreign born citizen, he gave more inspiration and more hope for every person of foreign birth than any other man of foreign extraction of any country.

1843—Knute Nelson—1923

"His wonderful career, his service in the army as a boy, his remarkable political career, his genuine Americanism are an inspiration to those who have come from foreign countries as well as to those whose ancestors have been here since the commencement of our republic."

"The sorrow which I experience I cannot express. His life should be an inspiration to all those who wish to be genuine servants to the American republic. Knute Nelson is Minnesota's greatest contribution to American citizenship."

Died "With His Boots On"
Senator Nelson died suddenly. He wanted to die that way—with his boots on—the comfortable square-toed shoes he always wore.

He was more than usually vigorous for a man 80 years old, and until he was stricken with influenza in March, his health was good, except for a bronchial infection from which he had suffered more or less for years. But none of his friends thought he would die so soon.

When he boarded the train Senator Nelson told Representative Harold Knutson of Minnesota that he was feeling much better and that he would soon be his old self again.

Nelson stuck to old styles and old ways. Even in dress he believed old fashions were better than new. His dress clothes were unique in Washington. He wore a vest cut high, with only a small V in place of the ordinary waistcoat.

He also was one of the few men in public life who stuck to the old-fashioned "Boiled" shirt. He always wore that kind.

In point of continuous service in the senate Senator Nelson stood third, only Senator Henry Cabot Lodge (rep., Mass.) and Senator Francis E. Warren (rep., Wyo.) outranking him. He entered the senate in 1895 and has seldom missed a day in attendance since.

When Senator Nelson celebrated his 80th birthday recently he was showered with greetings from notables in all parts of the globe. He received congratulations by wireless from the King of Norway and a plug of tobacco from Attorney General H. M. Daugherty.

Senator Nelson always chewed tobacco. He never was without a plug. And in a little poolroom near his office building, the man who always has sold tobacco to the senator, whenever he was in town, mourned his death as the death of a revered and loved friend.

"He never would drive an automobile," Mr. Wedum said. "He drove an old skinny horse and a rattling buckboard for years. He would come into town like any old farmer, hitch his horse to a post in front of my store, and come in and talk about politics and farming. When his secretary, Carl Borden, was here, the senator rode around in his little flivver, with Carl driving."

"He loved farms. He used to put on an old pair of overalls and a straw hat and go out in the fields and pitch hay with the farmhands—he owned 400 acres outside the town then. Up to a few years ago he worked around the farm, milked cows, fed the pigs,

NATION'S TRIBUTE TO A SELF-MADE MAN

St. Paul, April 30.—The nation's tribute to a self-made man will be paid here tomorrow to Senator Knute Nelson.

From an immigrant boy with only his mother to aid him, he rose to political power—and a record of continuous public service seldom equaled.

The body of the senior Minnesota senator who died aboard a train en route home Saturday after leaving Washington, will arrive in St. Paul early tomorrow morning.

The party accompanying the body arrived in Chicago over a Pennsylvania train early this morning, and will leave there tonight on a Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road train at 6:30 p. m. arriving in St. Paul at 7 a. m. tomorrow.

Governor J. A. O. Preus joined the party in Chicago and will accompany the body to St. Paul.

Arriving here the body will be taken to the state capitol where it will lie in state in the rotunda all day and evening Tuesday.

A long list of honorary pall bearers including virtually all state officials and civic and political leaders was made public. Many state senators and representatives are included in the list.

A military guard will be placed in the rotunda of the state capitol while the body lies in state and will accompany the body to the special train which will bear it to Alexandria early Wednesday morning.

At Alexandria, old home of the senator, the funeral service will be a simple effective tribute to a son of the sod and a toiler.

The body will lie in state in the Douglas county court house and services will be held at the Lutheran church.

A mile out from town a grave is being prepared in Kinkead cemetery. On the same lot are buried Senator Nelson's wife and four children.

CHESTER PACT IS SIGNED AT ANGORA PROTEST UNHEEDED

ANATOLIAN OIL FIELDS TO BE DEVELOPED BY AMERICAN CONCESSION

(By United Press)
Constantinople, April 30.—The Chester agreement granting American concessions in the development of Anatolian oil fields was signed at Angora today.

In the face of French protests the Turkish commander of public works Feizi Bey and Colonel Kennedy of the Ottoman-American development company affixed their signatures to the final papers, dispatches stated.

Copies were exchanged by the parties and the work will be begun at the earliest possible moment.

The manager of the railway project which is to haul mineral oil to the sea has begun a study of the situation and actual labor on the scheme will be begun as soon as his plans are completed.

Colonel Kennedy went to Angora by way of Mudania aboard an American destroyer. All details were completed before his arrival and there remained only the formal signing of the papers.

12 YEAR GIRL IS DEVOTED TO HER FOSTER MOTHER

REAL AND FOSTER MOTHERS IN A STRANGE EMOTIONAL DRAMA

Chicago, April 30.—Beatrice Nuttall, 12, whose real and foster mothers have created a strange emotional drama by asking a court to decide her custody today declared she will flee if awarded to the mother who gave her birth.

The child, after establishing a friendship between the two women, pleaded to live with Mrs. James Nuttall, the foster parent, who has kept her since she was a week old.

Mrs. Charles Morris, the real mother, started court action for Beatrice after a 12 year search through several states for her. She claimed that Beatrice was taken from her and given in adoption by relatives who feared disgrace because the child was born out of wedlock.

Mrs. Morris later married Clayton B. Klinger, whom she says is the father of the child and he has been subpoenaed to testify when the case is heard before two superior court judges tomorrow.

RISK COMPANIES IN LEVANT CASE MAKE FINAL SETTLEMENT

Settlement has been made in the three suits brought against insurance companies by Mrs. Anna Levant, of Brainerd, her attorney, Walter F. Wieland, completing negotiations at St. Paul on Saturday afternoon.

The largest policy was one of $10,000 in the Aetna Life Insurance company. That of the Central Life Insurance society, of Des Moines, Iowa, was for $2,500 and carried a double indemnity in case of death by accident. That of the Mutual Life Insurance company of New York was an estate policy in the sum of $6,000.

Edward Levant, a Brainerd merchant, died at a Duluth hospital on April 11, a year ago, after he had been found in a dying condition at Duluth from gunshot wounds.

The three cases were filed in the district court at Brainerd and removed to the United States court by the insurance companies on the ground that the several companies were citizens of states other than Minnesota. They were on the docket to be tried at the May term of court in Duluth, had not settlement been effected.

SUPREME COURT IN LIQUOR RULING

KNOCKS OUT ATTORNEY GENERAL'S ORDER BANNING LIQUOR FROM AMERICAN SHIPS

(By United Press)
Washington, April 30.—The supreme court today knocked out Attorney General Daugherty's ruling banning liquor from American ships throughout the world but held that foreign ships cannot bring liquor inside the American three mile limit.

The high court held there is nothing in the 18th amendment to prevent American ships from having liquor on board when in foreign waters, but decided the amendment does apply specifically to foreign ships entering territorial waters of the United States. Foreign ships cannot bring liquor in as sea stores, the court held.

The decision was given by a vote of 7 to 2, Justices McReynolds and Sutherland dissenting. The majority opinion was read by Associate Justice Vandewater.

In a dissenting opinion Justice Sutherland expressed the belief that barring liquor on foreign ships within our territory was unjust and unreasonable interference and one apparent to lead to international misunderstanding.

40,000 Minnesota Farmers Urged To Join a Buyers' Strike Today

St. Paul, April 30.—Forty thousand Minnesota farmers were urged today to join a buyer strike today.

J. F. Reed, president of the Minnesota farm bureau federation advised them to "buy absolutely nothing that stern necessity does not imperatively demand."

By refraining to buy, farmers have a "sure, swift and certain remedy" for the "vicious circle of rising prices of farmers necessities rising profits and rising wages of those who produce them" said Reed.

The advice is contained in a statement to be printed tomorrow in the May 1st issue of the Minnesota Farm Bureau news official publication of the federation, and of 53 county farm bureaus in the state with a circulation of 40,000.

Mr. Reed said he would go before the farmers throughout the state in a speaking campaign this spring and summer urging them to buy only the necessities of life.

"From the most expert statistician practiced by those controlling finance in Washington to the lowest farmer in his humble home; from the great captains of industry and finance to the most humble laborer in industry or pursuits—it is fully known that the farmer is not receiving his proportionate returns and capital invested and labor expended with any other business or industry in this country today" Reed said.

"Is there a remedy for this condition that can be applied?"

"Yes, it is sure, simple, swift and certain."

"Without revolution, disorder or that has made the farmer from the beginning so independent and so reliant, this ruling of business literalism and absolutely the time can be counted in months when the value of land and equipment and necessary labor to produce products of farmers will be an equal return in money with the investment and labor in no other industry. This equality the farmer is entitled to and will not be common known and so ruthlessly satisfied with less."

PREAMBLE

This is the third of a series of fifteen industrial articles which will be published in the Dispatch, one each week for the next 15 weeks, for the purpose of outlining to our local people and the outside world the vast field of resources and opportunities existing here for advancement and success and for the promotion of optimism and the right psychology. The facts contained in these articles are absolutely reliable and gathered by expert publicists who have had many years experience in the business.

The Dispatch, throughout this period, will make an effort to show that there is not a section of the country in the West or the Northwest that offers a wider field of endeavor than Crow Wing county. Every phase of industrial life and business activity will be covered in a thorough and constructive manner.

The carrying out of this campaign has been made possible by many of the leading business institutions of Brainerd, one of the leading commercial centers of the state and located in a banner county. After reading this article turn to the industrial pages and see who these progressive firms are which so willingly have come to the assistance of this enterprise.

Every reader of the Dispatch can assist very materially in the campaign by sending his own copy of the paper to a relative or friend in some other section of the country after he has completed reading it, that this relative or friend may learn of the opportunities in this splendidly productive section.

BRAINERD DISPATCH COMPANY

By R. KENNETH EVANS

"The palm of the hand of the Almighty," exclaimed a famous explorer when he gazed upon the valley of the Mississippi river, the "Father of Waters."

Within the boundaries of the territory which drew this exclamation is Crow Wing county. Since the days of the explorers dairy cattle have taken the place of the deer, moose and buffalo in wooded and prairie districts of the state.

When Horace Greeley told the young men of his time to "Go west and grow up with the country," he put into a few words a great thought which came like a challenge to the young men of the nation.

Did you ever take time to analyze the thought behind Horace Greeley's words? What Greeley did was to condense a great sermon into a line. Horace Greeley knew that in the mighty and growing west was to be found the greatest opportunity for the young manhood of America—opportunity surpassing the brightest possibilities held out by the greater cities of the east. He knew that in the west the opportunities for every young man of energy and intelligence was almost limitless.

It is a long time since Horace Greeley's day and the old frontier has gone, never to return. It is true that all the wild places of the west have been conquered, yet today the challenge of Horace Greeley rings as true as when it was first uttered.

While the pioneer days are gone in Minnesota, the real development of the state has just begun. Today the greatest need is young men and Crow Wing county offers opportunities unsurpassed.

Reclamation Has Been Important
Searching the great undeveloped areas of the western states for possible locations for reclamation projects the federal and state governments, railroads, enterprising individuals and corporations have joined forces in the scientific conquest of these western lands and have brought about an epoch in the development of the west. Thriving communities have sprung up where the wheels of industry now hum, under the busy hand of ambitious, independent, happy and contented people.

In this country tens of thousands of American people have risen from humble employment to the full measure of independent existence, producing the necessities of life from the soils of the earth.

"Back to the farm" has grown to be national slogan and wherever transportation has made easily accessible the lands reclaimed by drainage, irrigation or other projects, as well as scientific farming, the lands have been fruitful and profitable to the satisfaction of the most enthusiastic. Westward has swept a great army of industrious home-making people, who have swarmed to these reclaimed areas and are building substantial and lasting communities. Along with other states Minnesota has received a portion of this westward immigration but the portion has been altogether too small in view of the inducements the state has to offer. This latter statement is especially true of Crow Wing county, as subsequent analysis in this article will show.

Minnesota is pre-eminently a

Climate Attractive

The climate of Crow Wing county is mild, invigorating and healthful. The winters are reasonable dry and seldom severe to a point of hardship. Frequently during the middle of winter the sun shines bright and warm. The average number of days that are not even cloudy is in the neighborhood of 250. The springs are usually early and spring work can often begin by the middle of March or the first of April with some exceptions. The summers are delightful with frequent showers which mature crops early so the frost does not seriously enter into consideration in farm operation.

Some Vital Statistics

Crow Wing county was created by act of the legislature on May 23, 1857 and contains land as productive as any to be found in the state. It has an area of approximately 676,480 acres of which 190,100 acres are divided into 1,281 farms of an average of 148.4 acres. These farms are operated by 1,058 owners and 233 renters. The percentage of owner operated farms is unusually large. The county is situated near the center of the state approximately 120 miles northwest of the Twin Cities and 100 miles west of Duluth. The topography of the county varies widely, parts being strongly morainic, other parts gently undulating while some sections are very flat.

The county is so situated geographically that all crops native to the temperate zone can be grown here, although some are much more productive than others. The major crops are hay, oats, rye, corn, and potatoes. Cereals are grown on

This is the third of a series of fifteen industrial articles which will be published in the Dispatch, one each week for the next 15 weeks, for the purpose of outlining to our local people and the outside world the vast field of resources and opportunities existing here for advancement and success and for the promotion of optimism and the right psychology. The facts contained in these articles are absolutely reliable and gathered by expert publicists who have had many years experience in the business. The Dispatch, throughout this period, will make an effort to show that there is not a section of the country in the West or the Northwest that offers a wider field of endeavor than Crow Wing county. Every phase of industrial life and business activity will be covered in a thorough and constructive manner. The carrying out of this campaign has been made possible by many of the leading business institutions of Brainerd, one of the leading commercial centers of the state and located in a banner county. After reading this article turn to the industrial pages and see who these progressive firms are which so willingly have come to the assistance of this enterprise. Every reader of the Dispatch can assist very materially in the campaign by sending his own copy of the paper to a relative or friend in some other section of the country after he has completed reading it, that this relative or friend may learn of the opportunities in this splendidly productive section.

BRAINERD DISPATCH COMPANY

By R. KENNETH EVANS

"The palm of the hand of the Almighty," exclaimed a famous explorer when he gazed upon the valley of the Mississippi river, the "Father of Waters."

Within the boundaries of the territory which drew this exclamation is Crow Wing county. Since the days of the explorers dairy cattle have taken the place of the deer, moose and buffalo in wooded and prairie districts of the state.

When Horace Greeley told the young men of his time to "Go west and grow up with the country," he put into a few words a great thought which came like a challenge to the young men of the nation.

Did you ever take time to analyze the thought behind Horace Greeley's words? What Greeley did was to condense a great sermon into a line. Horace Greeley knew that in the mighty and growing west was to be found the greatest opportunity for the young manhood of America—opportunity surpassing the brightest possibilities held out by the greater cities of the east. He knew that in the west the opportunities for every young man of energy and intelligence was almost limitless.

It is a long time since Horace Greeley's day and the old frontier has gone, never to return. It is true that all the wild places of the west have been conquered, yet today the challenge of Horace Greeley rings as true as when it was first uttered.

While the pioneer days are gone in Minnesota, the real development of the state has just begun. Today the greatest need is young men and Crow Wing county offers opportunities unsurpassed.

Reclamation Has Been Important
Searching the great undeveloped areas of the western states for possible locations for reclamation projects the federal and state governments, railroads, enterprising individuals and corporations have joined forces in the scientific conquest of these western lands and have brought about an epoch in the development of the west. Thriving communities have sprung up where the wheels of industry now hum, under the busy hand of ambitious, independent, happy and contented people. In this country tens of thousands of American people have risen from humble employment to the full measure of independent existence, producing the necessities of life from the soils of the earth.

"Back to the farm" has grown to be national slogan and wherever transportation has made easily accessible the lands reclaimed by drainage, irrigation or other projects, as well as scientific farming, the lands have been fruitful and profitable to the satisfaction of the most enthusiastic. Westward has swept a great army of industrious home-making people, who have swarmed to these reclaimed areas and are building substantial and lasting communities. Along with other states Minnesota has received a portion of this westward immigration but the portion has been altogether too small in view of the inducements the state has to offer. This latter statement is especially true of Crow Wing county, as subsequent analysis in this article will show.

Climate Attractive

The climate of Crow Wing county is mild, invigorating and healthful. The winters are reasonable dry and seldom severe to a point of hardship. Frequently during the middle of winter the sun shines bright and warm. The average number of days that are not even cloudy is in the neighborhood of 250. The springs are usually early and spring work can often begin by the middle of March or the first of April with some exceptions. The summers are delightful with frequent showers which mature crops early so the frost does not seriously enter into consideration in farm operation.

Some Vital Statistics

Crow Wing county was created by act of the legislature on May 23, 1857 and contains land as productive as any to be found in the state. It has an area of approximately 676,480 acres of which 190,100 acres are divided into 1,281 farms of an average of 148.4 acres. These farms are operated by 1,058 owners and 233 renters. The percentage of owner operated farms is unusually large. The county is situated near the center of the state approximately 120 miles northwest of the Twin Cities and 190 miles west of Duluth. The topography of the county varies widely, parts being strongly morainic, other parts gently undulating while some sections are very flat.

The county is so situated geographically that all crops native to the temperate zone can be grown here, although some are much more productive than others. The major crops are hay, oats, rye, corn, and potatoes. Cereals are grown on

COOPERATION IN TRANSPORTATION

MORE and more, leaders in industry and commerce are coming to see that cooperation guarantees better results than a policy of competition. In railroad circles a demand for consolidation has been made and this is likely to be realized through the merger of railroads in the United States. In England this has already been done with a great saving in the cost of operating the railroads. Competition that serves no useful end is seen to be futile by men who have been privileged to study operations based on a competitive principle.

In line with this growing appreciation of the fact that cooperation promises better service comes the announcement that seven of the Northwest railroads have affirmed their support of the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence Tideway project. Such a decision is for the good of the Northwest. The project when completed will serve as a system tributary to the railroads, or the railroads will be tributary to the great oceanway transportation service.

It is quite possible that a few years ago this would have been opposed by the railroads, which would have seen in it a competitive transportation medium. In deciding to support the project, the railroads give proof that they are seeking to build up the transportation facilities of the country. A decision of this kind holds considerable promise of cooperative endeavor, for the larger good, in the years that lie ahead.

With the phenomenal growth in the demand for transportation facilities, made by the rapidly growing business of the United States, it is highly probable that the railroads will not be able to supply the demand that is made upon them, but, by backing such projects as the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence Tideway upon which commerce will be borne after it has been carried to the ports by the railroads which serve as feeders, the transportation problem of the United States will be solved.

It is well that, when conditions arise that call for new methods, leaders in the different fields of business are impressed by the new demands and are ready to make those changes that are called for as a result of the developments that call for a change of policy. Policies are then made to fit the conditions and are not retained when conditions call for a change.

GREETING NEW CITIZENS

A PERSON always feels better after receiving a cordial welcome, and this is true whether the person is entering a new town, a new organization or a new country. First impressions are frequently abiding impressions, which are not changed by what may follow upon the first impression.

Because this is true to life, those who are interested in making good citizens have come to the conclusion that newly naturalized American citizens should have a cordial welcome into the citizenry of this country, by those citizens who have enjoyed the valuable privilege of American citizenship for a period of years or through a life time.

Impressed by this thought, which is generous and commendable, citizens gather in the court room in the cities of the United States on naturalization day and give the newly made citizens a greeting that carries the conviction that they are received enthusiastically into the vast family of citizens of the United States.

If this day of naturalization means nothing more to the new citizens than answering a number of questions in a court room where the atmosphere is such that they are fearful, nervous, and impressed by the cold formality of the proceedings, they are likely to go out feeling that after all becoming a citizen of the United States is a matter of red tape and is soulless, uninspiring and disappointing. When citizens gather to welcome them into the new relations that they have voluntarily sought, the new citizens go out to their homes with a feeling that others are interested in them, and when it is remembered that these people have come from other lands and that, while they may have lived in this country for many years, they have felt that they were never a part of it until they received their second papers, it becomes obvious that a cordial handshake, a kindly word of welcome, after an impressive ceremony, creates a good impression of American citizens and promotes the spirit of Americanism in the lives of those newly elected to the citizenry of the United States.

The court officials are heartily cooperating in this program of cheer and goodwill and invite the support of citizens who share the conviction that an expression of goodwill on such an occasion costs little and means much.

RECEIVES SILK FLAG

American Legion to Use Same in Public First Time in District Court

The American Legion post of Brainerd has just received a beautiful silk flag, which was purchased especially for parade use and is considered among the best in the city.

The flag is about 4 1/2 ft. by 5 1/2 ft. in size and is mounted on a ten foot pole, tipped with a large gold eagle. It is trimmed with gold fringe, cords and tassels, and is really a big addition to the equipment of the post.

It was the Legion's intention to give this flag its first appearance in public on Memorial Day, but it has been decided to change the plans and use it in the district court room on Wednesday, May 2nd, naturalization day.

Ten Springfield rifles, including slings, cartridge belts, etc., have also been received for use by the firing squad on Memorial Day, and Commander A. W. Lydon plans to use these also in decorating the court room, so that the citizenship program may be the more impressive.

The American Legion is preparing the program for Wednesday, to include several patriotic addresses and music by the Legion Quartette. The Brainerd Elks lodge will serve refreshments at the close of the afternoon.

Schueneman-Northrup

A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Senn, when their niece, Miss Gladys Merle Northrup was united in marriage to Edwin Charles Schueneman, both of this city. Rev. E. A. Cooke officiating, using the Methodist ring service. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Niles, cousins of the bride. Little Marie Temple acted as ring-bearer.

The rooms were prettily decorated in yellow and white, snapdragons and roses being the flowers used. The bride wore a gown of grey canton crepe and carried a corsage bouquet of pink roses. The bridesmaid wore a gown of Nile green canton crepe and carried a bouquet of yellow roses.

Following the ceremony a bounteous dinner was served by Mrs. Senn. During the evening many pleasing selections were sung by the Misses Violet and Irma Green.

The newlyweds left Friday morning, motoring to Hutchinson, Minn., where they will spend a few days before leaving for Port Angeles, Washington, where Mr. Schueneman has accepted a position with T. B. Brusegard in the offices of the Lakeside Lumber Co.

Both young people are well known in Brainerd, where they have been employed for some time. The bride was stenographer at the Lakeside Lumber Co., until that business was taken over by the Hayes-Lucas Co., recently. The groom was assistant to L. F. Hough, manager of the Standard Lumber Co., but resigned this position to cast his lot with Mr. Brusegard.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Northrup of Winona, parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Schueneman of Hutchinson, the groom's father and mother, Mr. Quast of Hutchinson, Mr. Miller of Winona. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ellen Heyer, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lockwood, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Cain, Mr. and Mrs. John Temple and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Green and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ormand and son, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Hough and Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Senn.

The Dispatch joins the many friends of this estimable young couple in offering congratulations and bidding them Godspeed to their new home.

Sincerity Class

The Sincerity Class of the Evangelical church meets Tuesday evening in the basement of the church. All members are urged to be present, as there is important business to come up. Visitors are welcome.

Put your faith in Kellogg's Bran— it relieves Chronic Constipation!

If you suffer with mild or chronic constipation, go after it relentlessly! Constipation has probably wrecked more lives than any one human ailment. It is the basis of many illnesses, leading even to such diseases as Bright's and diabetes. In its milder form constipation creates sick headaches, biliousness, dizziness, nausea, bad breath, pimples, etc. Kellogg's Bran is guaranteed to relieve constipation permanently if it is eaten regularly. Kellogg's is ALL BRAN—that's why it acts as nature's perfect sweeper, cleanser and purifier.

To safeguard your own health, to protect your family, serve Kellogg's Bran each day. As a constipation preventive or for mild cases, eat at least two tablespoonfuls daily. In chronic cases, as much with each meal. But keep at it persistently—best constipation with bran—nature's most wonderful food! And think how Kellogg's will free you all from the dangers of pills and cathartics!

Kellogg's Bran is a life sustainer and body-building food because it contains mineral salts and other food essentials, as well as being a natural relief from constipation!

Kellogg's is delicious in its nut-like flavor. It adds greatly to the taste of hot or cold cereals when sprinkled or mixed with them. Or, cook it with hot cereals, allowing two tablespoonfuls for each person. Kellogg's Bran makes very delicious muffins, raisin bread, etc.

Kellogg's Bran is served in leading hotels, clubs and restaurants in individual packages. All grocers sell it.

COOPERATION IN TRANSPORTATION

MORE and more, leaders in industry and commerce are coming to see that cooperation guarantees better results than a policy of competition. In railroad circles a demand for consolidation has been made and this is likely to be realized through the merger of railroads in the United States. In England this has already been done with a great saving in the cost of operating the railroads. Competition that serves no useful end is seen to be futile by men who have been privileged to study operations based on a competitive principle.

In line with this growing appreciation of the fact that cooperation promises better service comes the announcement that seven of the Northwest railroads have affirmed their support of the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence Tideway project. Such a decision is for the good of the Northwest. The project when completed will serve as a system tributary to the railroads, or the railroads will be tributary to the great oceanway transportation service.

It is quite possible that a few years ago this would have been opposed by the railroads, which would have seen in it a competitive transportation medium. In deciding to support the project, the railroads give proof that they are seeking to build up the transportation facilities of the country. A decision of this kind holds considerable promise of cooperative endeavor, for the larger good, in the years that lie ahead.

With the phenomenal growth in the demand for transportation facilities, made by the rapidly growing business of the United States, it is highly probable that the railroads will not be able to supply the demand that is made upon them, but, by backing such projects as the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence Tideway upon which commerce will be borne after it has been carried to the ports by the railroads which serve as feeders, the transportation problem of the United States will be solved.

It is well that, when conditions arise that call for new methods, leaders in the different fields of business are impressed by the new demands and are ready to make those changes that are called for as a result of the developments that call for a change of policy. Policies are then made to fit the conditions and are not retained when conditions call for a change.

GREETING NEW CITIZENS

A PERSON always feels better after receiving a cordial welcome, and this is true whether the person is entering a new town, a new organization or a new country. First impressions are frequently abiding impressions, which are not changed by what may follow upon the first impression.

Because this is true to life, those who are interested in making good citizens have come to the conclusion that newly naturalized American citizens should have a cordial welcome into the citizenry of this country, by those citizens who have enjoyed the valuable privilege of American citizenship for a period of years or through a life time.

Impressed by this thought, which is generous and commendable, citizens gather in the court room in the cities of the United States on naturalization day and give the newly made citizens a greeting that carries the conviction that they are received enthusiastically into the vast family of citizens of the United States.

If this day of naturalization means nothing more to the new citizens than answering a number of questions in a court room where the atmosphere is such that they are fearful, nervous, and impressed by the cold formality of the proceedings, they are likely to go out feeling that after all becoming a citizen of the United States is a matter of red tape and is soulless, uninspiring and disappointing. When citizens gather to welcome them into the new relations that they have voluntarily sought, the new citizens go out to their homes with a feeling that others are interested in them, and when it is remembered that these people have come from other lands and that, while they may have lived in this country for many years, they have felt that they were never a part of it until they received their second papers, it becomes obvious that a cordial handshake, a kindly word of welcome, after an impressive ceremony, creates a good impression of American citizens and promotes the spirit of Americanism in the lives of those newly elected to the citizenry of the United States.

The court officials are heartily cooperating in this program of cheer and goodwill and invite the support of citizens who share the conviction that an expression of goodwill on such an occasion costs little and means much.

THE head of the United States shipping board resigns. There must be a reason. Perhaps congress made it impossible for him to operate the ships with credit to himself and the board. Someone else has a hard job ahead of him.

ARMY generals are still at it telling what they did in the war and they differ among themselves over the claims that are made. But it's only a vocal and newspaper warfare in which the casualties are negligible.

ANDY GUMP's love letters did him a good service. Such letters have not always brought such happy results. Many a man has paid dearly for what he wrote when the muse was upon him.

KING's cartoons have started something. Skeezix had the measles and youngsters in Minnesota in large numbers have caught them. They are highly contagious.

SENATOR BORAH wants world peace. He says so. But he doesn't want the world court. There are some men who don't want anything they don't originate.

A BRITISH economist says that Europe must save itself. Up to date no one from outside has attempted to prevent it from doing so.

THE reparations are still facing five big obstacles. Is that all?

RECEIVES SILK FLAG

American Legion to Use Same in Public First Time in District Court

The American Legion post of Brainerd has just received a beautiful silk flag, which was purchased especially for parade use and is considered among the best in the city.

The flag is about 4 1/2 ft. by 5 1/2 ft. in size and is mounted on a ten foot pole, tipped with a large gold eagle. It is trimmed with gold fringe, cords and tassels, and is really a big addition to the equipment of the post.

It was the Legion's intention to give this flag its first appearance in public on Memorial Day, but it has been decided to change the plans and use it in the district court room on Wednesday, May 2nd, naturalization day.

Ten Springfield rifles, including slings, cartridge belts, etc., have also been received for use by the firing squad on Memorial Day, and Commander A. W. Lydon plans to use these also in decorating the court room, so that the citizenship program may be the more impressive.

The American Legion is preparing the program for Wednesday, to include several patriotic addresses and music by the Legion Quartette. The Brainerd Elks lodge will serve refreshments at the close of the afternoon.

Schueneman-Northrup

A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Senn, when their niece, Miss Gladys Merle Northrup was united in marriage to Irwin Charles Schueneman, both of this city. Rev. E. A. Cooke officiating, using the Methodist ring service. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Niles, cousins of the bride. Little Marie Temple acted as ring-bearer.

The rooms were prettily decorated in yellow and white, snapdragons and roses being the flowers used.

The bride wore a gown of grey canton crepe and carried a corsage bouquet of pink roses. The bridesmaid wore a gown of Nile green canton crepe and carried a bouquet of yellow roses.

Following the ceremony a bounteous dinner was served by Mrs. Senn. During the evening many pleasing selections were sung by the Misses Violet and Irma Green.

The newlyweds left Friday morning, motoring to Hutchinson, Minn., where they will spend a few days before leaving for Port Angeles, Washington, where Mr. Schueneman has accepted a position with T. B. Brusegard in the offices of the Lakeside Lumber Co.

Both young people are well known in Brainerd, where they have been employed for some time. The bride was stenographer at the Lakeside Lumber Co., until that business was taken over by the Hayes-Lucas Co., recently. The groom was assistant to L. F. Hough, manager of the Standard Lumber Co., but resigned this position to cast his lot with Mr. Brusegard.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Northrup of Winona, parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Schueneman of Hutchinson, the groom's father and mother, Mr. Quast of Hutchinson, Mr. Miller of Winona. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ellen Heyer, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lockwood, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Cain, Mr. and Mrs. John Temple and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Green and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ormand and son, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Hough and Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Senn.

The Dispatch joins the many friends of this estimable young couple in offering congratulations and bidding them Godspeed to their new home.

Put your faith in Kellogg's Bran—it relieves Chronic Constipation!

If you suffer with mild or chronic constipation, go after it relentlessly! Constipation has probably wrecked more lives than any one human ailment. It is the basis of many illnesses, leading even to such diseases as Bright's and diabetes. In its milder form constipation creates sick headaches, biliousness, dizziness, nausea, bad breath, pimples, etc. Kellogg's Bran is guaranteed to relieve constipation permanently if it is eaten regularly. Kellogg's is ALL BRAN—that's why it acts as nature's perfect sweeper, cleanser and purifier.

To safeguard your own health, to protect your family, serve Kellogg's Bran each day. As a constipation preventive or for mild cases, eat at least two tablespoonfuls daily. In chronic cases, as much with each meal. But keep at it persistently—best constipation with bran—nature's most wonderful food! And think how Kellogg's will free you all from the dangers of pills and cathartics!

Kellogg's Bran is a life sustainer and body-building food because it contains mineral salts and other food essentials, as well as being a natural relief from constipation!

Kellogg's is delicious in its nut-like flavor. It adds greatly to the taste of hot or cold cereals when sprinkled or mixed with them. Or, cook it with hot cereals, allowing two tablespoonfuls for each person. Kellogg's Bran makes very delicious muffins, raisin bread, etc.

Kellogg's Bran is served in leading hotels, clubs and restaurants in individual packages. All grocers sell it.

IMGRUND AUTO CO.

By R. KENNETH EVANS

EVER since the automobile has played such an important part in the general commercial world there has been a constant demand on the part of the users of automotive transportation for dependability. To make cars more substantial and to eliminate experiments has been the paramount issue that the manufacturer has had to meet and today the "freak" car has been relegated to the background.

Substantial cars with less parts, augmented by universal service—this is today the feature that attracts most attention from the buyer. No longer is it necessary to explain the working features of a car. Almost every man, woman and child in the United States knows the principles upon which a good car works. It merely remains for the manufacturer to show that he has eliminated the chance features of unsuccessful experiments to place his car on a favorable plane.

"When better cars are built, Buick will build them," has been the slogan used by the manufacturer of the Buick automobile since the first day they were placed on the market. A significant fact is that the factory has lived up to its slogan. Today it stands as the acme of perfection among the medium priced cars. The owner of the Buick finds a service station in every little village and hamlet as well as large distributing agencies in the larger cities. Year by year has chronicled improvements, strengthening of weak points, until now the Buick will perform as it was never believed possible to make a gasoline driven vehicle perform. With added refinement and ease in operation this year Buick is showing a car that will appeal to the most fastidious or exacting as to service.

The Buick car is handled in Brainerd and the surrounding trade territory by the Imgrund Auto company. This firm was established here in 1916 by J. T. Imgrund and Sons, when they bought out the interests of E. R. Smith. The garage was first located at 309 Sixth street, south. The present modern and completely equipped garage was completed in 1921 and stands out as one of the best to be found in the city. It has a brick front with concrete walls and floor. They are the exclusive agent for the Buick car in this territory and carry a complete stock of parts and accessories. Scores of satisfied automobile owners in this part of Minnesota have purchased their automobiles from this firm and have learned of the dependability of performance for which they may always depend in the Buick. The same may be said of the G. M. C. trucks for which this firm also has the agency. This truck is one of the most widely sold on the market.

In addition to the very complete stock of parts and accessories for both the Buick car and the G. M. C. truck which is carried by this garage, a close relationship is maintained with the principal distributing agency of this northwest territory, which means that parts or adjustments can be easily and rapidly secured. All the latest models in Buicks and G. M. C. trucks are available here as soon as they may be secured elsewhere after leaving the factory and this firm has been a valuable factor in maintaining the reputation of Brainerd as a distributing center.

The mechanical department is in keeping with the efficiency to be found in other departments of the garage. Four expert mechanics are employed who have had specialized training in the care and repair of Buicks and G. M. C. trucks, but who are also capable of doing thoroughly efficient work on any other make of car. The shop is fully equipped with power machinery and all work turned out carries with it a substantial guarantee.

The garage is equipped with storage room for 50 cars and the best of care is accorded to all cars placed in such storage. A ladies' rest room is maintained which is attractively furnished and the display room is also handsomely finished.

A complete line of Goodyear tires and tubes is carried in stock. The garage handles the Red Crown Solite gasoline and the Mobiloil, Conserve and Haviland oils and greases. A curb service for gasoline and water is maintained and a courteous attendant is always in charge. A service car is also maintained and is ready to go out on a call at any time during the day.

Million Car Production Enables Buick to Offer Complete Line of Fifteen Different Motor Cars

Never has a motorist been so privileged to be so exacting in the choice of a Buick as in the present season. Fifteen different passenger models, both sixes and fours, covering the widest sort of range, are included in the line for 1923. Each is designed to meet particular motoring needs. Each is an outstanding value. This achievement in anticipating what the motoring public desires in a vehicle is attributed to the fact that Buick has been working along steadily on a production schedule that has made possible the building of one million motor cars in twenty years.

Million Car Production Enables Buick to Offer Complete Line of Fifteen Different Motor Cars

Never has a motorist been so privileged to be so exacting in the choice of a Buick as in the present season. Fifteen different passenger models, both sixes and fours, covering the widest sort of range, are included in the line for 1923. Each is designed to meet particular motoring needs. Each is an outstanding value. This achievement in anticipating what the motoring public desires in a vehicle is attributed to the fact that Buick has been working along steadily on a production schedule that has made possible the building of one million motor cars in twenty years.

THE PENNANT

By R. KENNETH EVANS

ONE of the retail institutions that well justify Brainerd's claim as a trading center for this section and especially with respect to men's furnishings lines, is the Pennant Store, located at Sixth and Laurel streets. This enterprising business establishment was formerly operated by Ed. Levant but since June 1, 1922, it has been under the management of Milkes & Zimmerman. It is now under the personal supervision of Chas. W. Milkes.

This store handles an exclusive line of men's furnishings together with a department retailing shoes and hose for the entire family. In the men's furnishing department will be found a large line of shirts, underwear, hose, hats, caps and in fact everything for the man from head to foot. Mr. Milkes and Mr. Zimmerman are experienced merchants and have buying connections which make it possible to offer to the customer the strong combination of quality and moderate price. Every line is kept strictly up to date and there is no store which responds as quickly to the dictates of the fashionable world.

Since Mr. Milkes and Mr. Zimmerman have taken over the management of the store the shoe department has more than doubled in volume of business transacted. This can be attributed to good business methods and giving the public what it wants in the way of quality and service. The store handles nothing but the highest quality goods and operates on a narrow margin. A strictly cash business is done. That there has been a satisfactory profit on such a narrow margin is sufficient evidence of the popularity of the store. Such well-known lines as the Friedman and Shelby, St. Louis, Endicott-Johnson and C. Gotzian shoes for men, women and children are carried. Expert shoe fitters are employed and an unusual variety of styles and a wide selection are found here.

In addition to the lines mentioned above the store handles a full line of work clothing and shoes. A motto upon which the firm has built its success is, "We sell for cash and for less," viz., quality merchandise at lower prices or money refunded.

MILKES & ZIMMERMAN

By R. KENNETH EVANS

A TRUE index of what the customer may expect to find in the stock of this store is the slogan, "The Bargain Store of the Northwest." This phrase is lived up to in most literal fashion. It is truly a bargain store in the quality of goods sold and the unusually low prices. No commodity is a bargain notwithstanding low price unless the service which it will give is greater in degree than the price. This characteristic of the true bargain is found throughout the stock of Milkes & Zimmerman.

The Milkes & Zimmerman store is located on 302 Fourth avenue, N. E., and has been under the present management for about two and a half years. A most satisfactory growth has been experienced in this business since that time and there is every reason to expect an even greater development in the future.

Here is handled a full line of general merchandise, including dry goods, piece goods, millinery, notions and ladies' furnishings such as house dresses, aprons, sweaters and the like. In the shoe department are handled shoes for the entire family and an up-to-date men's furnishings department is also maintained.

Here again the extensive buying connections of this firm are made of use to the customer. The firm has always made it a policy to stock their stores with merchandise of the best and because of their buying power these stocks are secured at prices which are the reason that the claim to being a bargain store in the "nth" degree can be sustained.

The Milkes & Zimmerman store is one of the styles centers for women, the latest offerings of fashion being found in the millinery and ladies' furnishings department. The same can be said of the department handling men's furnishings.

It is a real pleasure to shop in this store because of the courtesy and efficiency of the entire clerking force. These qualities are insisted upon in the employees by the management and they have been factors in creating the large measure of success enjoyed by this institution.

Both Mr. Milkes and Mr. Zimmerman are to be congratulated on the modern merchandising institutions which they have built and which are a credit to the city.

Facts on Kreso Dip No. 1

Kreso Dip No. 1 is a non-caustic coal-tar product. It is for use upon Horses, Cattle, Sheep, Goats, Hogs, Dogs, Poultry and Pet Stock. It kills lice, sheep ticks, ordinary mites, fleas drives away flies and mosquitos; for treatment of ordinary mange, scab, ringworm, and many other skin diseases; disinfects, cleanses and deodorizes. A material of this kind is highly desirable to keep stock in a healthy and thrifty condition, free from parasites and skin diseases. Give Kreso Dip No. 1 a trial and you will regard it as a necessity thereafter. Buy it in original packages and avoid cheap substitutes.

Following is the synopsis, cast,
etc., for "The First Day of School," a local talent play presented under the auspices of the Young Peoples' Department of the First Methodist church on Tuesday evening, May 1st,
in the church auditorium.

Synopsis

A playlet in one act.
A little story of the first day in a country school, an experience which
many of us have gone through.

In this little story is brought out
in a humorous way the trials and tribulations of a country school teacher who is taking the school for
the first time.

Here is presented "the different
mothers who must see their children
safely installed in school and who respect the teacher with the searching and critical eye and impress upon her the capabilities of their boy or girl, and of course asks that certain
little favors be accorded them.

Here is brought out the backward
school boy, the hustling student, the mischief maker, the bashful boy and
the silly girl.

Place—A county school room.
Time—Opening day of the district
school.

death resulting from pneumonia.

Lavina Mane was born near Boniver, N. Y., 56 years ago. She was married on October 6th, 1872 to C. M. Cowles, at Boniver. To this union was born six children, only one of whom is living, Louis Cowles, of Chicago.

The family moved to Brainerd in 1911, and have resided here ever since, Mr. Cowles being employed in the Northern Pacific shops.

Funeral arrangements have not been completed, but it is expected that the services will be held from the Bethlehem Lutheran church, Rev.
O. S. Winther officiating, and interment made in the Daggett Brook cemetery.

the close of the business session by the following ladies: Mesdames P. G.
Fallquist, Theodore Newgard, Carl
Bentley, W. F. Dieckhaus and William Hall.

All members are urged to attend
and to bring a friend.

EMERSON HOUGH DIED AT EVANSTON

Chicago, April 30—Emerson
Hough, noted writer of stories dealing with American frontier and pioneer life died at the Evanston hospital today.

He was 66 years old. Death came at the height of Hough's career. His two most widely read stories, "The Covered Wagon" and "North of Thirty-Six" dealing with early day life on the western plains are now attracting wide spread attention.

PARENTS NIGHT AT SCOUTS

Tenderfoot and Investiture Ceremony to be Given at Methodist Church

Tonight, Monday April 30 is Parents night for all the parents of the boys of Scout Troop No. 1 First Methodist church.

There will be a tenderfoot and second class investiture ceremony also a short program and refreshments.

This will be the first ceremony of its kind ever held in Brainerd and the committee would like to have every parent of the boys of troop No.
1 present. The program will start promptly at 7:45 o'clock in the church parlors.

The scoutmasters training school began last Tuesday night. There were six men present: Reverend L. F.
Strothman, A. Hansen, C. Welsh,

We are pricing every suit in our store at a decided reduction in price. We shall not add any more suits to our stock so that when these are sold our stock will be depleted. You'll find it decidedly to your interest to purchase suits now. Priced from $23.75 and up.

H. F. Michael Co.

W. Zakariasen, E. W. Schmit and K.
Bowma.

The committee wants a larger attendance and everyone interested in the work, over seventeen years of age is urged to attend.

The school is held every Tuesday night at the Y. M. C. A. and start promptly at 7:30 o'clock.

Business & Professional Women

The regular monthly meeting of the Business & Professional Women's club will be held Tuesday evening, at seven-thirty, in the rooms of the Brainerd Civic and Commerce Association. Much interest is being taken in this meeting, as election of officers will be held.

'THE FIRST DAY OF SCHOOL' PLAY

Local Talent to Present It at First Methodist Church Tuesday
Evening May 1

TRIALS OF SCHOOL TEACHER

Orchestra of Young Peoples Department Will Play, Vocal Numbers
Also Included

Following is the synopsis, cast,
etc., for "The First Day of School," a
local talent play presented under the auspices of the Young Peoples' Department of the First Methodist church on Tuesday evening, May 1st,
in the church auditorium.

Synopsis

A playlet in one act.
A little story of the first day in a country school, an experience which
many of us have gone through.

In this little story is brought out
in a humorous way the trials and
tribulations of a country school
teacher who is taking the school for
the first time.

Here is presented "the different
mothers who must see their children safely installed in school and who inspects the teacher with the searching and critical eye and impresses upon her the capabilities of their boy or girl, and of course asks that certain
little favors be accorded them.

Here is brought out the backward
school boy, the hustling student, the
mischief maker, the bashful boy and
the silly girl.

Place—A county school room.
Time—Opening day of the district
school.

SPORTSMANSHIP ON THE TENNIS COURT

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, April 30.—William T. Tilden, the reigning monarch of the tennis court, aroused a lot of critical comment recently in one of his literary efforts when he said it was the sporting thing to do to even up an advantage obtained by a bad decision of the officials against an opponent.

The champion, to make the point clearer, argued that any fair sportsman, who should score a point on a questionable decision of the judges should make it even by "blowing" the next point with a drive into the net or outside the lines, or something like that.

The point was made by some qualified critics that the sentiment of fair play might be praiseworthy, but an open slam at the judgment of the umpires would hold the officials up to ridicule and that such tactics were anything but good sportsmanship.

Tilden said that all the good players have made it ethical to even up after mistakes in official judgment, but the facts do not bear out his statement.

In the final match of the last indoor national championships, Vince Richards was playing Francis T. Hunter. In the last game, Richards scored two service aces on drives that Hunter thought were outside. Richards, however, made no attempt to even up, and he accepted both decisions and won the championship. Hunter lost his head and banged his racket down on the floor.

No one criticized Richards for accepting the judgment of the officials, and Hunter was severely called in the press for his demonstration. Hunter's act was no more of an insult to the officials that Richards would have been if he slammed into the net because both would have been an open affront.

Sportsmanship is always to be desired in any sport and there are occasions when it is the sporting thing to do to even up after a bad break against an opponent.

During one of the big matches between William M. Johnston and James O. Anderson, the Australian star, Anderson slipped to his knees in trying to return one of Johnston's volleys and the little Californian blew the next purposefully by driving out of bounds.

That is admirable sportsmanship!

"AMATEUR NIGHT"

Monday Night Will be Last Event of Its Kind this Season at Walsh & Anderson

This evening is to be "Amateur Night" at the Walsh and Anderson gymnasium, and the last athletic exhibition of this season.

Jack Clifford of Minneapolis and "Wild Bill" Hart of St. Paul will be featured in an 8 round exhibition.

Brainerd's light weight champion, Eddie Imgrund, will box with Al O'Reilly of Staples, four rounds, and Jack Hull, from Pillager will meet I. O. Brown from the U. S. Army, now stationed at Ft. Snelling, and formerly of Duluth, in a four-round exhibition. Both of these men are very fast, and will give a good account of themselves.

Much interest has been taken the past winter in the athletic programs staged at the Walsh and Anderson gymnasium, and local lovers of this sport will regret to see the closing of the season. It is expected that a large number will be in attendance.

POSTMASTER DROPPED DEAD

(By United Press)

Pine City, Minn., April 30.—Accused of a $1,700 shortage in his accounts, the postmaster of Rock Creek near here dropped dead today.

A few minutes after Post Office Inspector A. A. Wicht dropped into the general store and post office last Friday, Fred Hartz, postmaster, succumbed to heart trouble.

Investigation proved his accounts were short, it was announced today. He had been postmaster for three years.

Mr. Hartz met the postoffice inspector and they talked for a few minutes. Hartz complained of not feeling well, and went home. He had been home only a few minutes when he died.

AGRICULTURE IS THRIVING IN THE COUNTY

26,546 acres of the county's lands. Of this, 9,457 acres are planted in oats for grain, 7,506 acres in corn, 7,271 acres in rye, 875 acres in barley, 777 acres in buckwheat, 593 acres in spring wheat and 67 acres in winter wheat.

The Average Production

Crow Wing county produces approximately 151,000 bushels of corn annually with an average production of 20 bushels per acre. The yield of 1921, however was about twice that of 1922, averaging around 45 bushels to the acre. Crow Wing county is not a wheat producing section and the average acre yield is far below the average for the entire United States and it is rapidly being abandoned as a farm crop by the farmers of this section. Oats for grain is an important crop. Last year 236,425 bushels were produced with an average of 25 bushels to the acre. The production of oats per acre in 1922 exceeded that of 1921 by 4 bushels an acre. Barley is a fairly important crop, approximately 25,000 bushels being produced in 1922, at an average of 25 bushels per acre. The 1922 production exceeded that of 1921 by an average of three bushels an acre. Rye, which is another major crop, is now producing annually over 150,000 bushels or an average of 23 bushels an acre. The 1921 crop, however, showed a production of 18 bushels an acre. In 1922 the acreage planted in rye head increased nearly 2,000 acres over the previous year.

Among the other crops are potatoes, grown on 2,740 acres; edible beans on 86 acres; flax on 89 acres; onions are grown on 16 acres; cabbage on five acres; sugar beets on four acres and other root crops on 92 acres. In 1922 Crow Wing county produced approximately 250,000 bushels of potatoes with an average acre yield of 95 bushels. Like many of the other crop products the 1922 yield was heavier than that of 1921, an average of ten more bushels an acre of potatoes being produced. Flax produces an average of 11 bushels an acre, there being usually about 4,000 bushels raised. The 1921 yield, however was far below the average.

Hay an Important Crop

The forage crops play an important part and augment the development of the dairying and stockraising industries. The total hay acreage of the county is approximately 22,000 acres. Of this land 9,168 acres are planted in clover and timothy for hay, 175 acres in alfalfa, and 12,620 acres in wild hay. There are 368 acres planted in clover which is cut for seed and 63 acres planted in timothy for the same purpose. In addition to these hay crops there are in the county 5,972 acres of plow land and now being used for pasture, 58,848 acres of pasture not subject to cultivation and 10,536 acres of farm woodland. In 1922 there was 19,085 tons of tame hay cut from 14,137 acres, an average yield of 1.35 tons to the acre. The 1921 yield was slightly less than this. There were 10,000 tons of wild hay cut from 12,240 acres in 1922 as compared to 18,000 tons cut in 1921. An effort is being made to encourage the growing of alfalfa. Many alfalfa clubs have been organized and merchants in the towns of Crow Wing county are offering prizes to the farmers for such production.

The Drainage Projects

Drainage has played an important part in the development of agriculture in the state of Minnesota. After the passing of the glacial epoch in the United States many ages ago, Minnesota was left with a multitude of lakes and swamps retained by the glacially formed moraines. In many parts of the state it has been necessary to drain much of the land in order to facilitate crop production. In Crow Wing county 130 farms report land having been drained while 776 report land needing drainage according to the Federal department of agriculture. Approximately 24,202 acres have been drained while it is estimated that 59,940 acres are in need of drainage. Of this latter figure 57,155 acres are also in need of clearing. A large part of this land was formerly included in the extensive lumber producing sections of the state.

There are 24,202 acres included in the operating drainage enterprises, and of this amount 12,551 acres are

Improved land, 2,789 acres are cultivated and the balance of 9,662 acres is unimproved. Only 328 acres are subject to overflow or are swampy. None of this land has ever suffered a loss of crops through defective drainage. Some 105 miles of open drainage ditches had been constructed up to 1921, twenty miles being the maximum in any one drainage enterprise. These drainage projects have given Crow Wing county approximately 10,000 acres of productive agricultural land. This additional land has been secured at an average cost of $10.00 an acre. The total capital invested in and required for completion of operating enterprises in approximately $100,000.00. The average cost per acre for draining the entire 24,402 acres, part of which is still unimproved, has been $3.85 per acre. Tame hay is the principal crop raised on the drained land, there being some 8,300 acres in this crop. The balance is in corn, there being 4,152 acres of this crop planted on such land. To the casual reader there may appear some discrepancy between the acreage quoted in hay and corn and the 10,000 additional acres but this is explained by the fact that some 2,000 or more acres included in these drainage enterprises was improved and productive prior to the inauguration of the drainage system.

Activity Last Year

The year 1922 showed considerable activity in Crow Wing county as in many other counties in northern Minnesota in land clearing for agricultural purposes. In a land clearing contest with 151 contestants participating, resulted in 957 acres being brushed, (brush removed) 680 acres being stumped (stumps removed), and 675 acres being broken, giving a total of 2,341 acres. Six counties were included in this contest and a Samson tractor was awarded to the community clearing the largest acreage. This was won by a community in St. Louis county.

The water area in Crow Wing county is extensive, there being many large and small lakes within its borders. These lakes are a part of the much heralded "Ten Thousand Lakes of Minnesota."

The soil is sandy to clay loam. The entire county is covered with glacial drift which makes an exceptionally productive soil.

While the fruit industry is one of minor importance, it is growing year by year. There are now over 1,000 apple trees in the county of bearing age. All farmers are planting orchard trees and laying aside a plot on their farms for orchards.

The county has a population of 24,566 according to the last Federal census. Of these 11,475 live in the rural districts. Of the total 19,576 are native born. The various commercial centers of the county do over 50% of their business with the farmers.

The county is recognized to be at a high point of advancement in its class of farm improvements. The majority of the farms are modern in every respect, many having their own light and water plants. There are 98 silos in the county and 57 tractors for the tilling of the soil. Everywhere are to be seen up-to-date barns, machinery and fences of the latest type.

AMUSEMENTS

"The Affairs of Anatol" Remarkable in Every Respect

Absolutely unique in the annals of screen entertainment is Cecil B. DeMille's production "The Affairs of Anatol," a Paramount picture which is being presented at the Lyceum theatre for the last time tonight.

Unique from the point of view of cast, story, treatment and magnificence, Jeanie Macpherson wrote the photoplay which was suggested by Arthur Schnitzler's play. Alvin Wyckoff and Karl Struss, two photographic experts, did the camera work.

The cast is extraordinary. Here is the list of stars: Wallace Reid, Gloria Swanson, Elton Dexter, Bebe

Daniels, Monte Blue, Wanda Hawley, Theodore Roberts, Agnes Ayres and others.

Jones Here Tuesday in Big Western Picture

Due at the Lyceum theatre on Tuesday only is Charles Jones, that magnetic film star who has made such rapid progress under the Fox banner. Few men on the screen have equalled his speedy development from the crude to the artistically finished actor. He has come to be an ever-welcome visitor, and in his new picture, "Bells of San Juan," William Fox has supplied him with a role exactly to his liking.

Cavemanned Girl is Viola Dana

If there is anyone who does not enjoy every minute of "They Like 'Em Rough," Viola Dana's new picture which will be shown at the New Park tonight only, it is hard to imagine what sort of movie fare would please him. For this little Metro star has another of those roles in which she has so many times shown that she is a past master of the art portraying the impulsive vivacious, fun loving girl—the modern flapper.

In "They Like 'Em Rough," Miss Dana plays the part of an orphan who was bound to have her own way and to whom authority in any form was unbearable.
